DETAILED ACTION

This communication is responsive to Appeal Brief, filed 03/01/2006.

Claims 65-86 are pending in this application. This action is made Final.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 74-83 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claims 74 and 83 recite “A system to facilitate user interaction with merchant web sites comprising:” and the remainder of the claims is merely arrangement of software components. The claims are non-statutory for at least the reason that it is not tangibly embodied in a manner so as to be executable.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 65-73, and 84-86 allowed.

The following is an examiner’s statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art either alone or in combination doesn’t teach the limitation of independent of user interaction with merchant web sites, pre-preparing a proxy platform corresponding to participating merchant web sites by performing operation comprising planning a modified presentation of each participating merchant web site including one or more changes to functionality of the web site; and responsive to a user’s request to view a merchant web site for which a corresponding pre-prepared proxy platform exists performing operation comprising: responsive to user initiation of a purchase transaction upon the requested web site, the proxy platform automatically retrieving personal data from the user’s cyber wallet and entering said
